

Vendor Risk Management

Simplified.
Streamlined.
Smart.

Ensuring your third parties can manage your data and keep it secure from increasing cyber-attacks is more important than ever. Managing your vendor risk involves a lot of moving pieces: the manual tracking and collecting of information, risk status analyzation, assigning tasks, scheduling, generating reports, and more. It's an inefficient, highly manual and error-prone process that you can't afford to get wrong.
